Dear Koen, than you for putting me on your mailing list. I don't know if you remember but we were on the same panel on Serkan Ozkaya's living and working in utrecht project. We had a heated discussion and I really appreciated that. I am wondering if you could make yourself available some time (2 to 3 days) in the fall/late fall for a visit and lecture in Istanbul? If you agree, we would arrange your ticket+hotel+an honorarium of Euro 300. You are completely free in what you would like to discuss.

The fall is fairly flexible at the moment. Since June 2001, I was lucky enough to have Chris Dercon, Hou Hanru, Hans Ulrich Obrist, Carlos Basualdo, Phillipe Vergne, Charles Merewether, Maria Lind, Charles Esche, Mika Hannula, and Dan Cameron in Istanbul for lectures. We usually have a very interested body of students, artists, critic, designers and architects, at about 60 to 100 people. Please let me know what you think.

Warm regards,

Vasif Kortun
