

Activities

Library Week Events

The Ministry of Education has declared the week beginning with the last Monday of March national library week. Throughout the week, there will be talks on various topics including the role of libraries in society, the difficulties libraries face, the impact that advances in information technology have had on libraries, and library collections. Founded in 1997, the Library of the Ottoman Bank Archives and Research Center, has participated in these activities since 2004.

40th Library Week Events

41th Library Week Events

42th Library Week Events

44th Library Week Events

45th Library Week Events