

Many of these artists have studied in Western Europe, notable in France and Italy, and many have participated in such major international exhibitions as the Venice and Sao Paolo Biennials. Others have works represented in important private and public collections, including in the Museum of Modern Art and the Guggenheim in New York. Some of the works in the exhibition will be for sale.

The exhibition was selected in Ankara and Istanbul, Turkey in 1969 by Mrs. Benjamin E. Grey, President of the Grey Foundation, and Mr. Michael Milkovich, Director of the University Art Gallery of the State University of New York, Binghamton, and is under the High Patronage of His Excellency, Melih Esenbel, the Ambassador of Turkey to the United States. Mrs. Grey serves on the Board of Trustees of the Minneapolis Society of Fine Arts, parent organization of the College of Art and Design and the Minneapolis Institute of Arts. She is a member of the College Committee.
