Dear Lars, I don't know if you have been following things here in Istanbul. As you know the economy of Turkey has hit rock bottom and my projects have been semi-suspended, one of them was being funded by a bank that has lost in two days its net value by 48%.

We have to go on, and I rely on the support of my international friends to float it out through 2001-2002, by way of projects.

This is just a note to bring you up to date. I will be in touch very soon.

Best,
Vasif
